

IF YOU ARE CONSIDERING FILING BANKRUPTCY CASE, PLEASE CALL TO SCHEDULE AN APPOINTMENT FOR A CONSULTATION.

THERE IS NO CHARGE FOR THE CONSULTATION.
ATTORNEY DAISY M HOLDER | 205-251-2334

Gather the necessary documents | you MUST bring these to your initial consultation

1. All bills, statements and coupon books. If you are not able to locate these documents, you may bring a credit report. See information below on “How to Order a Credit Report.”
2. If you are buying a home or other real estate, bring a recent statement or coupon book.
3. If you are buying an automobile, bring a recent statement or coupon book.
4. Proof of your income for the last two (2) months:
5. If you are paid monthly, bring your 2 most recent payroll stubs
6. If you are paid biweekly, bring your 4 most recent payroll stubs
7. If you are paid semimonthly, bring your 4 most recent payroll stubs
8. If you are paid weekly, bring your 8 most recent payroll stubs.
9. If you have other income such as pension or Social Security income, bring proof of your income. If you receive income by direct deposit to your bank account, you may bring your bank statement as proof of income.
10. Federal Income Tax Returns for the two (2) prior tax years
11. Certificate of PreBankruptcy Credit Counseling. See information below, “Requirement to Obtain a Certificate of Prebankruptcy Credit Counseling.”

Note: You may schedule an appointment for a consultation before obtaining a credit counseling certificate. If a bankruptcy case is right for you, then you can obtain the certificate while the bankruptcy case is being prepared by the attorney.

Obtain a certificate of Pre-Bankruptcy credit counseling | this is REQUIRED

You are not eligible to file a Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Petition (Debtors Court) or a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Petition unless you obtain a certificate of pre-bankruptcy credit counseling.

The credit counseling must occur within 180 days prior to filing bankruptcy. The Consumer Financial Education Foundation of America, Inc. has been approved by the Bankruptcy Administrator’s Office to provide a Certificate of Pre-Bankruptcy Credit Counseling.
